KENNY BOYD

LEAD VOCALS / HARMONIES / BASS GUITAR

Raised in Eastern Kentucky, Kenny Boyd was introduced to gospel music at an early age, where he developed an appreciation for strong vocals and harmony that continues to shape his music today. Deeply influenced by traditional country music - especially the sounds of the 1980s and '90s - Kenny has spent more than 30 years playing bass guitar. As a lead vocalist and harmony singer with One More Round, he brings a deep respect for country music's roots, a seasoned musical foundation, and a genuine love for the vocal harmonies that have long defined the genre.

KENNY WAYNE BURTON

LEAD VOCALS / HARMONIES / LEAD GUITAR

Raised in Central Kentucky, Kenny Wayne Burton's musical roots began with gospel music at an early age, building a foundation that continues to influence his playing and singing today. With more than 30 years of experience on guitar, Kenny Wayne's heart has always been in country music, particularly the unmistakable sound of the 1990s. His guitar work is heavily influenced by the style of legendary Nashville session guitarist Brent Mason, bringing tasteful picking and classic country tone to One More Round. As a lead guitarist, lead vocalist, and harmony singer, Kenny Wayne helps give OMR its signature traditional country sound.

STEVE RICHMOND

LEAD VOCALS / HARMONIES / DRUMS / PERCUSSION

Raised in Eastern Kentucky with early roots in gospel music, Steve Richmond brings more than 30 years of experience behind the drums to One More Round. His career includes several years touring with Exile as well as touring with the late Daryle Singletary, experiences that have taken him to stages including the legendary Grand Ole Opry. Influenced by both '90s country and rock, Steve brings a powerful, seasoned approach to the rhythm section while remaining deeply connected to the vocal side of the music. A lead and harmony vocalist, his love of harmony is an important part of One More Round's signature sound.
